

General conditions for the competition Barber Battle Stream

- The condition for registering and accessing the Barber Battle TV Live online gateway is to have paid the registration fee / fees.
- Access to the BarberBattle TV Live online gateway (competitor and model) will be allowed from 10:30 a.m. based on the step already mentioned above.
- The competitor will print or prepare the ticket on his / her mobile phone before entering the online web gateway, so that he / she can prove himself / herself with the ticket number, which is indicated on the ticket in the upper right corner.
- The competitor is obliged to prove himself with an identity card.
- Competitors must adhere to the start schedule before the start of their competition category due to the start test of audio and video quality transmission.
- The Competition Model cannot have a pre-cut. Hair must not be cut or shaped in any way before the competition. During the competition, it must be cut at least ½ from the length of the hair.
- Competitors must show a change of hairstyle. The hair of the model will be evaluated before cutting or during registration and the subsequent initial transfer test. Violation of this rule may be a reason for disqualification from the competition.
- If a competitor misses the start of his competition category, he loses his place in the competition together with the registration fee.
- All competitors have the specified time and specifications for the cut according to their category, which are listed in the conditions of the competition category. The jury will evaluate 1-10 points on the points system. 1 (least) 10 (most) points. If the same number of points is in the same category, the jury will decide together on the main winner.
- The results of the jury will be made available to the public, but only the first three places. The remaining results will be made available only to competitors the following day on the website www.barberbattle.cz in a password-protected page. The password will be sent to your email address provided in the registration.
- The competitor agrees that he and his model will be published on social networks and websites and also agrees to be recorded at all times, both their audio and video tracks transmitted from his camera equipment.
- The organizer of Barber Battle s.r.o reserves the right to cancel or change the conditions of the competition and the start time of the competition

General conditions for the competition Barber Battle Online

- If the competitor does not manage to submit the photo documentation on time, he loses his place in the competition together with the registration fee.
- All competitors have specifications for cutting according to their category, which are listed in the conditions of the competition category. The jury will evaluate 1-10 points on the points system. 1 (least) 10 (most) points. If there are the same number of points in the same category, the jury will decide together on the main winner.
- The overall results of the jury will be made available to the public, but only the finalists proceeding to defend their hairstyles. The remaining results will be made available only to competitors on the website www.barberbattle.cz in a password-protected page. The password will be sent to your email address provided in the registration.
- The competitor agrees that he and his model will be published on social networks and websites.
- The organizer of Barber Battle s.r.o reserves the right to cancel or change the conditions of the competition and the start time of the competition